

Fits Like An Old Shoe!

This is the time of year when the housekeeper beautifies the home by the addition of small pieces of Furniture, Rugs, etc., etc., and we want to call your especial attention to our very large line of artistic Art & Craft's Furniture, sometimes called Mission. Being dark in color, and without any high polish, you can safely mix it with your old furniture and not fear that it will make your old furniture show up badly. Besides, think of the extraordinary advantage of having Furniture that will not show scratches and rough usage.

Oriental Rugs

We've just received a most choice selection of Oriental Rugs, embracing all the well known varieties, and have a regular Oriental rug expert in charge of them. We are also prepared to wash, clean and mend old rugs. Should you have an old rug badly worn, do not throw it away, but bring it to us, and let us make it over. Oriental Rugs are more valuable the older they get.

Fine Solid Mahogany Furniture

Among the many new things we've just received are new and beautiful pieces of Solid Mahogany. We wish you would "drop in" any time you're passing our mammoth store. It's a veritable free exposition of the fine arts in Furniture and Carpets, and we're always glad to show visitors through.

GOOD SPEECH, BUT BADLY DELIVERED

Postmaster-General Meyer Read an Excellent Essay—Other Items from Fredericksburg.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., October 11.—The Republican meeting held at the Opera House here last night, which was addressed by Postmaster-General George von L. Meyer, was a disappointment. Many persons went expecting to hear a fine speech, but the Postmaster-General took up his manuscript and read his speech in a monotonous tone of voice. A good crowd was present, but a number left before the meeting closed. Mr. Meyer's speech was well prepared, but very poorly delivered, and did not occupy more than thirty minutes in the reading, creating but little enthusiasm. The principal applause was when the names of Roosevelt and Taft were mentioned. Rev. S. H. Templeman, a native of Fauquier county, and for the past three years filling appointments in Philadelphia and New York, has accepted a call to two Baptist churches in Loudoun county.

Mr. William H. Street, of Essex county, issued invitations for the marriage of his daughter, Miss Roberta C. Street, to Thomas L. Kriete, also of Essex county, the marriage to take place at Ephesus Church, in that county, October 31st, at 2 P. M.

Announcement is made of the approaching marriage of Grady Thompson, of this city, and Miss Pearl Lee, of near Parkers, Spotsylvania county, the wedding to take place October 31st.

The following have been assigned to fill scholarships at Fredericksburg College, supplied by the city: Misses Beulah Boatwright, Louise Thomas, Beulah P. Taylor, Aurelia Hanway, Mary Alma Gouldman, Sallie Norris, Corinne Stearns, Mattie Fitzhugh, Messrs. Frank Beale and William Samuel Scott.

Traynham-Barksdale.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
MEADVILLE, HALIFAX COUNTY, VA., October 17.—In the Presbyterian Church of this village at 10 o'clock Thursday morning Miss Ella S. Barksdale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Barksdale, Jr., was married to Mr.

John Edward Traynham, of Cluster Springs, a large congregation of friends and relatives being present. Rev. Thornton S. Wilson, D. D., of Richmond, officiated.

Miss Gertrude Barksdale, the bride's sister, was maid of honor, and Mr. Robert W. Traynham, of Lynchburg, the groom's youngest brother, was best man.

The ushers were Messrs. David L. Traynham, R. A. Richardson, Charles C. Barksdale and W. B. Lawson, of South Boston, and Arthur S. Barksdale, of Houston, and Randolph Barksdale, of Meadville.

The happy couple, accompanied by some of their friends, went to South Boston by private conveyance, where an elegant luncheon was served at the home of David L. Traynham, the groom's brother, and in the evening the bridal party left for Cluster Springs, where the newly wedded pair will reside.

The bride is the niece of Judge William R. Barksdale, of Houston. The groom is a prosperous young merchant at the village of Cluster Springs, where he holds the position of postmaster and depot agent for the Norfolk and Western Railway, and is a brother of D. L. Traynham, State president of the Travelers' Protective Association.

HENRY C. STUART SPEAKS IN DANVILLE

Makes a Fine Impression on the Hustings in That City.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, VA., October 17.—Hon. Henry C. Stuart addressed a large gathering to-night at the courthouse in the interest of the Democratic party. Mr. Stuart was presented by City Attorney Eugene Witham, who paid a high tribute to his ability, both as a practical man and as a statesman, touching on his work as a member of the Corporation Commission and of the Constitutional Convention, in which body he was associated with Mr. Stuart.

To-night was Mr. Stuart's first appearance as a public speaker in Danville, and he made a very favorable impression. He touched on the protective tariff, the bank guaranty plan, and other national issues, arraigning the Republican party for its extravagances, and declared that the protective tariff was the parent of the trusts. He was liberally applauded, and his remarks were given close attention. Mr. Stuart closed with a beautiful personal tribute to the Democratic chieftain, called attention to the many wild and absurd promises made by J. M. Parsons, the Republican candidate for Congress from this district, and eulogized Congressman Saunders, the Democratic nominee.

GLASS RILES ROLLER.

Lively Political Discussion in Lancaster County.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LANCASTER, VA., October 17.—Persons who heard even of the week were at Heathville last Monday between George Nelms Wise, candidate for Congress from this district, and General Roller, of Rockingham, on the side of the Republicans, and Hon. Charles Glass, Congressman from the Sixth District, agree in saying that it was one of the liveliest and most interesting discussions heard in this region for many years. Both Mr. Wise and General Roller made good speeches, but by general consent, Mr. Glass carried off the palm. His concluding speech was overwhelming. He scorched both his antagonists. Wise took his castigation in good part, but General Roller is said to have gone away a sadder and a wiser man.

Jarvis-Upshur.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
EASTVILLE, VA., October 17.—An important social event of the week was the marriage Thursday of Mr. Kendall Addison Jarvis, a young business man, to Miss Elsie Yerby Upshur, daughter of Mr. Henry L. Upshur, both of this vicinity. The marriage took place in Christ Episcopal Church, this place, Rev. Mr. Thompson, of Portsmouth, officiating.

The bride was given away by her father. She was becomingly attired in a traveling dress of blue silk and carried a large bouquet. The groom, Mr. Jarvis, acted as maid of honor, and Mr. C. A. Ernest, of Portsmouth, as best man. The ushers were J. S. Nottingham, J. T. Filkins, third; Lucius Jacob, T. D. Scott, A. J. Dunton and Oulton Leatherbury.

Among the guests from a distance were Mr. A. Lanokin, Mrs. Helen R. Fitchett, of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Warren and Miss Warren, of Onancock; D. C. Ellis, of Norfolk; Miss Julia Rush and Miss Tolesman, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Calley Willard and Miss Fannie Parker, of Washington, and Miss Henrietta Costin, of Pittsburgh.

The bride is the great-niece of Judge Abel Parker Upshur, great-niece of Ad. John Upshur, of Washington, and niece of Dr. John M. Upshur, of Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis left by the afternoon train for a tour. They will make their home here.

Epes-Cottrell.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., October 17.—The most brilliant wedding of the autumn occurred last Tuesday evening at Trinity Methodist Church, when Miss Frances Ethel Cottrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Cottrell, became the bride of Mr. Charles Chilton Epes. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James H. Moss, of Richmond, assisted by Rev. W. Asbury Christian, pastor of the church.

The bride wore a robe of white Spanish lace over messaline, and her veil of white silk tulle was caught with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses.

The maid of honor was Miss Nellie Buchanan, of Norfolk. The bridesmaids were Miss Nannie Maxie Epes of Blackstone, Miss Lella Willis, of Richmond, Misses Lucille Cooper and Agnes Epes, the latter a sister of the groom, of this city.

Little Misses Elizabeth Cottrell, Mildred Cressy and Alma Branch, of this city, and Master Herbert Moss, of Richmond, were the ribbon-bearers.

Attending the groom, as best man, "Clinchfield Coal is the standard of Merit and the Acme of Quality."

A Wreck from Neuralgia

MRS. EDITH COPELAND.

Mrs. Edith Copeland, of Los Angeles, Cal., Who Was Sick With Indigestion and Neuralgia, is Loud in Her Praise of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, Which Has Benefited Her After Many Other Remedies Failed. It Has Cured Her of the Indigestion and Toned Up Her System, Thus Driving Out the Neuralgia.

Mrs. Copeland writes: "I was nearly a wreck when I came to California five years ago. When I had been here perhaps a month I came across one of your testimonial letters that just hit my case and I decided to get a bottle.

"I have had neuralgia of the heart and feet. Have had no satisfaction from my doctors (save receipted bills), and have been trying everything. Was also a sufferer from indigestion. Not only has Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey increased my weight and acted as a general tonic, but it has also nearly cured me of my neuralgia. I feel confident that in time Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey will drive it out of my system entirely."

Mrs. Copeland's case is similar to that of thousands of others, both men and women, who have been made hale, hearty and vigorous by the constant use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a medicine. It is a predigested food which has a stimulating and tonic effect on the system. It builds nerve tissues, prevents decay and keeps the entire system in a normal, healthy condition.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain. It is the most effective tonic-stimulant and invigorator known to science: softened by warmth and moisture, its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It cures nervousness, typhoid, malaria, every form of stomach troubles, diseases of the throat and lungs, and all rundown and weakened conditions of the body, brain and nerves. It is prescribed by doctors and is recognized as a family medicine everywhere.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey, and is sold in large sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1.00. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Write Consulting Physician, Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y., for a free copy of illustrated medicinal booklet and free advice.

was Mr. William Perry Epes, the groom's brother, and the groomsmen were Messrs. William E. Cottrell, Jr., Lewis A. McMurrin, Charles L. Putzel and Horace Epes. Messrs. W. L. Shumate and Maurice Jaquelin Baptist were the ushers.

The church had been decorated with palms, ferns, pink roses and candelabra. The altar was canvassed in white, and ivy leaves were used upon the cloth in profusion.

Mr. Willie Robinson, at the organ, rendered the march from "Lohengrin" as the party entered the church. "Trauermarsch" was played softly during the ceremony, and the recessional was Mendelssohn's march. Before the ceremony Mrs. Louis Lear sang "When She Is Near."

The bride and groom are spending their honeymoon in the North. After November 1st they will be at home to their friends at 3202 West Avenue. Among the out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were Rev. and Mrs. James H. Moss, of Richmond; Dr. Cannon, of Blackstone; Mrs. Thomas Dillard and Miss Mary Bette Epes, of Blackstone; Miss Sadie Veal, of Williamsburg; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. White, of Staunton; Mrs. H. H. Johnson and Mrs. H. L. Buchanan, of Norfolk; Professor E. S. Ligon, of Richmond; Misses Edith and Cecelia Huston, of Louisville, Ky.

Taylor-Shreckhise.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., October 17.—Rawleigh W. D. Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Innes Taylor, of this city, and Miss Evelyn Louise Shreckhise, of Staunton, were married Thursday at Emmanuel Episcopal Church, in that city. Rev. R. C. Jett officiating. Miss Mattie Shreckhise was maid of honor and Charles P. Spencer was best man. Among the ushers were Mr. W. K. Goulick, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left for an extended bridal tour, after which they will reside in Staunton, where Mr. Taylor is principal of the Staunton High School.

Crockett-Johnson.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BRISTOL, VA., October 16.—A marriage of wide interest was solemnized in the Central Presbyterian Church here at 8 o'clock Thursday night, when Miss Ellen Botts Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Johnson, became the bride of Captain Carey I. Crockett. The Rev. T. S. Russell, rector of Emanuel Episcopal Church, officiated. The event was witnessed by a large party of friends and relatives, the church having been prettily decorated.

Captain Crockett served for several years in the army in the Philippines. He won signal distinction there for acts of bravery and daring, having participated in a number of fierce encounters, in one of which he was severely wounded.

The bride was attired in white satin, with bridal veil, while the groom wore the white uniform of the United States Army. The couple will reside at San Antonio, Texas, where Captain Crockett is now stationed with the Ninth Infantry.

Burgess-White.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

LYNCHBURG, October 17.—Thursday evening at the home of Mr. William A. White, an uncle of the bride, Miss Mildred E. White was wedded to Mr. E. L. Burgess, who came here a short time ago from Charlottesville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. M. Beckham, of Memorial Methodist Church. Miss Cora Williams was the maid of honor, and Mr. A. Bruce White, a brother of the bride, was best man, and the wedding march was rendered by Miss Minnie Logan.

The bride wore white silk, made princess, and trimmed with Irish point lace. She carried bride roses and maiden-hair fern.

After a short visit with relatives of the groom in Charlottesville, Mr. and Mrs. Burgess will return and reside here.

MADAME CHAMINADE

Popular Composer in America for First Time for Concert Tour.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NEW YORK, October 11.—Madame Cecil Louise Stephanie Chaminade, Carbonel, better known to a good many thousand Americans who either love and understand music or pretend to, as Madame Chaminade, got into this city this afternoon on the French Liner La Savole for the purpose of making a comparatively brief concert tour of the principal cities of the country. Though a good many music critics credit Madame Chaminade with being the best living female composer, if not of the first rank, she had not crossed the Atlantic before.

"I intended to do it long before this," she said, "but different things have prevented me—the illness or death of persons dear to me, the great age of my mother and such things."

Madame Chaminade is forty-seven years old. She is a trifle under medium height, very slight, her shoulders sloping, and she achieves that helpless effect so very popular at present without the slightest effort.

Her hair is short, much like that occasionally affected by the male poets of the cafes of France; is of a pleasant brown shade and just inclined to curl. Madame Chaminade's eyes are large and brown and most expressive, though when she is not speaking they have a melancholy look.

The composer, who speaks no English, though she talks German fluently, said that she had had a hard trip, the last three days being exceedingly rough. She said that for the last two years she had done very little original work. "You see," she said, "I lost my husband—it is nearly two years ago now."

The brown eyes darkened as she spoke. Madame Chaminade's husband was M. Carbonel, who was the chief owner of the largest music selling house in the city of Marseilles. She has no children.

COSSACKS SENT TO TABRIZ TO PROTECT MISSIONARIES

WASHINGTON, October 17.—At the request of missionaries at Tabriz, Persia, the Russian government has sent a troop of Cossacks from Tiflis to Tabriz to maintain order and to quell the political riots which have been in progress for several months.
